

The areas used for this analysis are the Middle Layer Super Output Areas as defined by the Office for National Statistics (ONS).
The population data used are the mid year estimates for 2007.

Only drivers involved in accidents within Greater Manchester and with a known home location within the county are shown.
This is approximately 69% of the total.

This map is based upon Ordnance Survey material with the permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office © Crown copyright. Unauthorised reproduction infringes Crown copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings. MCC LA 100019568 2009.